"DIXIE."

There were banners waving blithely On the fresh May morning breeze, The sky was blue and smiling, Myriad birds sang in the trees.
Thronged the people and I wondered;
Rang a bugle clear and loud.
Far away a cannon thundered,
And a stir went through the crowd.
Then I heard the sound of music, Heard the tramp of many feet,
And a Northern band played "Dixie,"
Marching down a Northern street!
Played it lightly, played it brightly, As they marched with measured tread; Played it lowly, played it slowly, As a requiem for the dead;
Played it loudly, played it proudly, As the best loved songs are sung.
When the day is in the morning And the heart and love are young, Never yet was gayer music, Never yet was song so sweet!
For a Northern band played "Dixie,"
Marching down a Northern street!
And the memory crept o'er me Of a vanished yesterday;
Of the loved ones gone before me,
From the old home far away.
Then I felt again the passion Of the days of Grant and Lee, And in bitter soldier fashion Climbed my hands that all might see!
But the wind sang "Peace!" 'Tis over!
North and South as brothers meet When a North and a South play "Dixie," Marching down a Northern street!"
"Way down South!" the bugles sang it, And I lived again a time When Southern hearts beat madly To its spell of of tune and rhyme.
"Look away!" came soft and pleading, As a mother's lullaby,
And I saw my comrades bleeding,
'Neath a burning Southern sky; I heard their voices cheering, Heard the drums' exultant beat,
As a Northern band played "Dixie,"
Marching down a Northern street!
Comrades, comrades! could you hear it In the trenches where you lie, Sure your silent lips would sing it,
And your hearts beat proud and high?
Comrades, comrades! Could you listen To the dear old song again, Rusty swords would leap and glisten, God in heaven! You were men!
And you lie there careless, heedless,
Of its message strange and sweet!
Though a northern band plays "Dixie,"
Marching down a Northern street!
Peace! the bitter fight is over,
And the victories are won!
Peace! the dreary night is ended,
And the long, sad day is done!
And from the old-time sorrow,
From the old mistake and wrong Comes the promise of tomorrow In the magic of a song!
Heart to heart today as brothers North and South together meet While a Northern band plays "Dixie," Marching down a Northern street!
Mamie L. Hammel.

Grassy Creek, Ky., May 22, '11.
Dear Editor:—Death has again visited our community and taken our dear aunt, Margaret E. Pieratt, to her sweet rest in the land that is fairer than day. She had suffered many years with tuberculosis and was much enfeebled thereby, but she visited her children and attended church until Jan. 1911. Since then she visited very little if any at all, but seemed to enjoy herself, and her decline seemed less rapid than formerly. On May 15 I had been out to see some sick and on my return at 4 p. m., a neighbor said, Aunt Mag Pieratt sent for you to come and see her. I passed by home and went direct to her house and found her in a dying condition. I gave some directions for her comfort and returned home and telephoned her brothers of her condition. I returned in about two hours to see her again and found her much more comfortable than at first. But next day the paroxysm grew more severe and at 11:30 p. m., May 16, her happy spirit went to God who gave it. She was near 79 years old and was a devoted member of the Baptist church from her youth. She was the youngest daughter of the late Hon. Joseph Carter. In her girlhood she was married to John Pieratt, of whom she was robbed by the cruel civil war in 1862, leaving her with five children, three girls and two little boys. She almost lived on her knees praying God to help her rear her fatherless children. She kept them together and gave them an English education. The older son became a prominent merchant in Lebanon, Va. The younger was clerk of the Morgan County Court. They both preceded their mother some years. Her daughters, Mrs. Mary Ann Lykins and Mrs. Frances E. Kilgore, of Grassy creek, and Mrs. Martha C. Testerman, of Lexington, are left to mourn their loss. She also left several grand children and some great grand children. She leaves two grieved stricken brothers, viz. Dr. W. G. Carter, of West Liberty, and Dr. F. M. Carter, of Farmers, and a great host of brethren and friends. May they all be ready and willing as was she when the Lord shall call. When brethren would visit her she always expressed her willingness and readiness to depart and be with Jesus, just waiting until he says come.

Let us all imitate her virtues and love and serve God until he shall say, "Enough, well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord."
W. L. GEVEDON.

A ship was wrecked on the northwest coast of Ireland; and a mother tried in vain to persuade her son, who had volunteered to go to the rescue of the last man on board the burning ship, to give up the perilous task. She pleaded that father and brother had never come back from the sea, and that she would be left alone if he were lost. He resisted her entreaties and put out to the sinking vessel. When the boat came back through the surf the crowds on the shore shouted, "Have you got your man?" The reply came, "Yes, and tell mother it's brother William!" Are we sure that the imperiled souls around us are not our brothers?—Masonic Home Journal.

General News.

Fire of incendiary origin swept the lumber districts of Dubuque, Ia., May 27th, causing a loss of $800,000.

Coney Island, N. Y., the most expensive amusement resort in the world, was destroyed by fire May 27th. The loss will exceed $3,000,000 and the conflagration is supposed to have been started by crossed electric wires or the stub of a cigarette. No lives were lost.

Parfrio Diaz, for nearly thirty years President of the republic of Mexico, has resigned and Francisco Leon De La Barra was selected temporary President of the republic.

Pierre Vedrine, a French aviator, flew from Paris to Madrid, a distance of 721 miles, May 25 and 26. The actual time of the flight was 12 hours and 8 minutes, which is at the rate of about 60 miles an hour.

When you lose your temper, when you procrastinate, when you nervous, excited, when you are blue and disappointed, when you worry, you lose much of your energy, your efficiency; you can not bring the whole, complete, positive man to your task. A discordant, troubled, unbalanced mind is in no condition to create, produce. It is negative and a negative mind can not produce.

Never mind what others do: run your own machine, think your own thought, live your own life. Let others fret and worry, if they will; keep your poise, your serenity. Do not imitate, follow, pretend or pose. Be fearless, self-reliant, independent. Be yourself. — Success Magazine.

The Art of Criticizing.

Criticism is fair and legitimate. Most of us need to be hit, and hit hard some times, principally because we often get the notion that we have a monopoly of wisdom. This is particularly true of those who are accustomed to have their own way because for the time being, they are placed in a position of authority. But criticism should be constructive rather than destructive. Most any fool can see the badness and weakness in men and things. Faults are always glaring. But it takes a wise man to see the good which may be covered over by the bad. Not to judge merely by superficial appearances requires knowledge. True criticism does not necessarily mean a pointing out of weakness. It may be the discovery of virtue. However, most criticism is of the other kind. It is just plain, simple knocking. Criticism of another generally acts as a boomerang upon the unjust critic, because the critic is most apt to point out in another the failing which is peculiarly his own. As a general proposition it is better to criticize yourself than to wait until another fellow gets a chance to criticize you; and be merciful to yourself in your criticism if you expect mercy from another. —The Rev. Charles Steale.

The Brotherhood of Man.

Mr. John Fair, south of town, has been quite ill for some time and unable to look after his farm. One day last week notice was given that those who cared could gather at Mr. Fair's farm and help sow his oats and break his tobacco land. Early on the following morning appointed, twenty-eight double teams entered Mr. Fair's fields and began work. Within two hours the oats were in the ground and the tobacco land was broken. The teams and implements engaged in the work represented an investment of over $10,000, besides the eighteen wagons that hauled the plows from distant farms. It was a magnificent sight to see the fifty-six horses, one team behind the other, throwing the dirt, and we regret that a picture was not taken of the scene to print in the Gazette. That's the kind of folks we have all over Calloway county. Let a man get sick and factions cut no ice. His neighbors warm up to him, be he Keysite or Hollander, Demopop or Republicrat. —Murray Gazette.

Never go where you are not wanted. If a merchant wants you to visit his place of business he will invite you through the columns of his local paper. It is very wrong to intrude upon privacy; don't do it. Never visit a store that does not advertise, unless the doctor advises quiet. —Elliott County Democrat.

When a splinter has been driven into the hand it can be extracted by steaming. Fill a wide-mouthed bottle nearly full of hot water, place the injured part over the mouth and press it slightly. The action thus produced will draw the flesh down and in a minute or two the steam will extract the splinter, also the inflammation. —Home Life.

Don't dry up and shrivel and become sour and selfish. Give some time and means to the institutions that make life worth living and bless the race. If you would be happy and do good in the world, get into every good thing going and push and pull to make it go better. Never forget that your own pleasure should be the last consulted. The girth of a man who follows the Golden Rule of life grows larger day by day. —Exchange.

Where Women Are Banned.

For centuries past, Duke Max za Sachsen informs us, women have not been allowed on the Turkish peninsula. Even female animals are prohibited. Condensed milk is imported from Switzerland so that the eyes of the inhabitants may not be offended by the sight of a cow.

The peninsula is Mount Athos, and its inhabitants are the members of 20 monasteries, which have existed there since the days when Christian emperors held rule at Constantinople and gave laws to all Europe. For 1,400 or 1,500 years, let us say, no woman has trodden the ground of Mount athos.

A vast quantity of art treasures and precious manuscripts has been stored in the monasteries, but for the most part their contents and even their character remained entirely unknown. —Tit-Bits.

MCALISTER, OKLA., May 22, '11.
Editor Licking Valley Courier:

Dear Sir:—Please find enclosed $2.00, which will pay for one year's subscription to your paper and the Weekly Courier Journal. I could not possibly think of doing without your paper, for it is just like "A letter from home" each week. I have been a regular subscriber to your paper and its ancestors since the days when Col. J. T. Hazelrigg, the gifted editor of the "Mountain Schorch," who so aptly described his paper to the "Washington City Newsboys" as the "Richest, Rarest, Reddest, Hottest Democratic Paper between the Blue Ridge and where the sun set."

Old West Liberty and Morgan County ought to stand by their paper and I believe that they will, for I note great pleasure the many many improvements that you have made on it.

Your friend and well-wisher, W. C. KENDALL.

As an example of scientific farming, a farmer out in Colorado harvested 200 bushels of grasshoppers in the summer, dried them and kept a big lot of chickens on them through the winter.

Underground Hotel.

An extraordinary hotel is that in the sewers of Paris, immediately below the Church of St. Madeleine. It was built and is conducted solely for the benefit of the sewer workers. Nearly a hundred meals are provided every day, and for the sum of $2.40 a man can be comfortably housed and fed for a week in this gigantic drain-pipe.

Very similar is the hotel which caters for visitors to the coal mine of St. Pierre at Mons. It is to be found at the bottom of the mine 600 feet below the earth, and is carved out of solid coal. The electric lights on the glittering black walls, which have been left unpainted, is extremely effective. Large reception and bed rooms splendidly fitted up are provided, and the hotel even boasts the luxury of a swimming bath. —Ex.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce GEORGE P. DYER,
of Wolf county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the 91st Legislative District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held July 1, 1911.

We are authorized to announce
I. N. HORTON,
of Wolf county, as a candidate
for the Democratic nomination
for Representative from the 91st
Legislative District of Kentucky,
subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held July 1, 1911.

A. HOWARD STAMPER,
of Wolf county, as a candidate
for the Democratic nomination
for Representative from the 91st Legislative district of Kentucky,
subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held July 1, 1911.

Some wise man said: "The quality of mercy is not strained"—but he had too much regard for the truth to make the assertion anent the quality of latter day religion.

In the good old summer
time.
In the good old summer
time.
The wise ones will know the rest.

Gen Diaz took personal command of the federal soldiers who repulsed a large body of rebels who attacked ed his pilot train as he and his party were fleeing from the Mexican capital. If the old warrior had shown the same spirit several months ago perhaps there would have been a different tale to tell.

Have you read O. H. Pollard's map of Kentucky with a line drawn directly across the State from Whitley county on the south to Bracken county on the north? Thirty-nine counties, or one third of Kentucky lies east of this line, and these 39 counties have but one Democratic candidate for State office.

Are Eastern Kentucky Democrats going west of that line to hunt a man to vote for for Attorney General?

A universal recognition of the principal that "all men are created free and equal" would do more toward reforming the world than all the preachers that ever preached; would do more toward lifting the poor man's burden and curbing the greed of the wealthy than all the laws that were ever passed; would go farther toward up-lifting the down trodden than all the charitable organizations and eleemosynary institutions that were ever organized; "Peace on earth, good will to men" would then be a fact instead of a theory; the Millennium, concerning which we hear so much, would not be far removed; that justice for which some poor devil has striven so long would not longer be delayed; equality before the law would then become an established fact; prison doors would rust on their hinges and jailers and hangmen would throw up their jobs; happy homes would multiply and increase and houses of prostitution would decrease in direct ratio; ignorance and superstition would be banished from the world and the light of reason would shine effulgent through all the earth; the thorn would be removed from the flesh and the mark of Cain almost obliterated; beauty of character and of soul would be reflected in the face and ugliness and hideousness would become things unknown.

That this time is coming we verily believe. When, we know not, neither will we hazard a guess, but if aught we have said or done brings it one moment nearer we have done well.

It is currently reported that some of the good (?) citizens of Morgan county, becoming exceedingly fish hungry, have been resorting to the use of dynamite to procure a supply of meat.

It is said that the Game and Fish Warden is in possession of evidence sufficient to convict certain parties for this dastardly offense, and it is the earnest desire of every good citizen of the county that he push his investigation to the utmost limits allowed by law.

Any man who will kill fish with dynamite, or any other explosive, ought to be in the penitentiary. He is no part of a good citizen. He is wantonly destructive in his very nature and ought not to be allowed to run at large.

The time was when a busy man, who only has an occasional leisure hour, could go to the river with hook and line (the only legitimate way of catching fish) and in addition to his hour's recreation could get a mess of fish.
But not so today. The fish have been destroyed by the use of dynamite and other unlawful methods until some species which were plentiful some few years ago are nearing extinction.

The dynamiter gets only a few, if any, of the fish he kills; the remainder being worse than wasted.

We are for a man for representative who will do all in his power to enact a law making dynamiting fish a felony.

Correspondence

Campton, Ky., May 22, '11.

Mr. Editor:—In last weeks issue of your valuable paper there appeared an article from some one at this place in which the writer sought to mislead the voters of Morgan county by making statements anent the political situation in this county as regards the representative race by referring to Mr.
Horton's supporters using dark lantern methods. That does Mr. Horton an injustice in that the statements made are untrue and unfounded.

The article in question also claimed that Mr. Stamper would carry every precinct in the county and that Mr.

Horton's supporters had "resorted to dark lantern methods in order to win from him," all of which is silly, absurd and untrue, and were it not that the voters of Morgan county are unacquainted with Mr. Horton or the political situation in this (Wolfe) county, any comment, defense or reply to the article would be superfluous. It is a well known fact that the consensus of opinion among the well informed Democrats of this county is that Mr. Horton will carry the county by a nice majority, and if Mr.
Stamper should be so fortunate to carry a single precinct it will be by a small majority. As to the "dark lantern methods" referred to Mr. Horton and his friends have never thought of using them, nor have they ever been forced to resort to any misrepresentations or falsehoods in order to bolster up Mr. Horton's candidacy or win the confidence of the people. Mr. Horton is a quiet, unassuming young man of splendid business judgment, honest, moral, true to his promises, and above all loyal to his friends, and his word as good as his bond; withal a man who can be depended upon to stand by his word and if nominated and elected will always be found at his post of duty fighting for the interests of his constituency when the battle of ballots is over Morgan county Democrats will know that their brother Democrats in Wolfe have not been recreant to their duty, and in closing this article will say that Mr.

Horton wants nothing but a square deal and that he does not wish any of his supporters to resort to any misrepresentations. A VOTER.

INDEX.

When we asked Bro. Nick to tell us some of the merits of Mr.
Horton we didn't expect him to be so hard up, judging from his letter that his stock had run down, so he attempts to point out the demerits of the other two candidates. In this he blows hot and cold at the same time. He starts off by saying Mr. Dyer no doubt was a good soldier and an officer in the army and that he is a good barber, a farmer and an honest man. Right you are Bro.
Nick, here is our hand. We have known George Dyer from his infancy and know how he was raised. His parents were poor but honest. George was always honest, truthful and industrious and today is as deserving a young man as ever asked the support of any people. Now, Bro. Nick, as to Mr. Dyer ever firing a gun in defense of his country will say that we were not with him during his services in the army and are not able to say, but he has an honorable discharge upon which he is credited with 11 hard fought battles.
The people can judge whether he did any shooting or not.

Next is Howard Stamper.
Here Bro. Nick takes off his gloves and goes after him. He says that Stamper is a has been.
Well, that is more than you can say for Horton, for he is not a has been and is not now, neither will he ever be the representative of this district. Now, Bro.
Nick, if Stamper is as unworthy as you say he is why did the people of his county elect him County Attorney 2 or 3 times and give him the nomination for Commonwealths Attorney and the voters in the general election give him 412 majority.

No, Bro. Nick, we were not surprised to hear that Mr. Horton was a good election manipulator and a distributor of campaign boodle, but we were surprised to learn that you had nothing better to say for him. So did John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie. Do we owe them our votes? No.

Mr. Voter, don't you believe that Bro. Nick was mistaken when he said every voter in the district owed their vote to Horton? We will tell you a few things that other people know.
Sir Isaac Newton the 2nd was a teller in a Democratic convention at Campton two years ago and he made himself famous as a counter. He reported 300 majority for his man when there was not 300 men in town that day and not over 15 votes difference between the two candidates. Here is where he heard that welcome applaudit, well done thou good and faithful servant; we the bosses, not the people, will give you the nomination in 1911, and true to their trust they are for him, man to man.

Remember the result of the election two years ago in this district and what caused it and for fear history might repeat itself be careful how you vote.
Bro. Nick, I am a democrat, are you? and will support the nominee, be he Horton, Dyer or Stamper, will you? Please answer if you can. PIGHEAD.

DINGUS.

Josh Walsh, of Goodsey, and Miss Ruie Bailey, daughter of T. H. Bailey, launched out on the matrimonial sea the 13th. The knot was declared tied by Rev.
R. H. Ferguson.

Farming has been delayed to some extent by the dry weather.
We are anxious for rain but have failed to pray for it as Elijah did, who was a man of like passion as we are.

In reply to your request for our opinion on vote selling will say we recently said through the columns of the Courier that this was one thing overlooked, while other things of less importance was considered. God knows it's the duty of honest citizens of the county who make up the grand jury to investigate this crime, which has done more to obscure our moral horizon than anything that history can recount. Not boasting, but if the writer should ever be counted worthy to occupy a seat on the grand jury, (if things don't change) there will be an eye opening which would be highly appreciated by all good citizens.

MAY-BROWN.

B. F. Brown and Miss Lora May, daughter of Harris May, of Salersville were quietly married Friday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. J. D. Johnson, and left immediately for Louisville where they will spend a week. They will make their future home at Paintsville.

The young man is a gentleman in every respect. He has been on the road for the Carter Dry Goods Co., for the past two years.

The bride is one of Magoffin county's pick choice and is loved by all for her pleasant and smooth disposition.

Their many friends wish them good luck throughout their lives, and that their future may be in a very quiet and pleasant manner. B. H.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food in, to a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body hungry all over. Thought a thin body was naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use its food. Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again—making new flesh. That's the way to get fat. The sheep-herder of the West will always be needed. For while the herds become smaller as the lands are taken up by settlers, yet there will always be enough open range, especially in the mountains, to make herding profitable. By men in other parts of the country this vocation needs to be considered for two reasons. Herding sheep is a very proper business for men in broken health. A year or two on the range, or even a few months, will do what all the sanitariums on earth cannot do in the restoration of health. Again, sheep herding in the west is more profitable than most city vocations. One of the largest taxpayers of Wallawa county, Oregon, when he went west ten years, got a job as herder. In two years he herded a flock for a share of the increase. In two years more he had a flock of his own. He then took up a home-stand, and within two years became independent. His land grew as well as his flocks, and today he is the second richest man in the county. If you are looking for work consider sheep herding.—Ex.

One thing is certain—if ever the armies of Norway and Sweden are called out to defend their country from an attack in winter, their ski-running capabilities will stand them in good stead. Their ski will become stinging weapons. In time of war every able-bodied man would be called upon to take up arms or to put on his ski to serve his country in carrying dispatches, or spying out the enemy's movements. They could send word of the enemy's doings with far greater swiftness than pursuit could follow. The invaders could move but slowly through the deep snow—the country folk could travel at any speed up to nine miles an hour. On their ski they could attack where they pleased, with such sudden swiftness that they could be away attacking elsewhere almost before their first assault could be met. In winter one meets soldiers on ski everywhere. At the military stations in the country regiments are to be seen marching, running, leaping, maneuvering on the plains, on the frozen forests or on the great inland lakes, gliding down the hills, threading their way through the vast pine then, or escape from them across the snow.—Pearson's Magazine.

CREMATION IN LONDON.

More Than Two Thousand Instances in Fifteen Years.

In spite of the efforts of well-known people—Miss Kate Greenaway was the last—to popularize cremation by leaving direction for the disposal of their bodies by this means, cremation in London does not advance very quickly. When the society started work in 1885 there were three cremations; in 1890 the number at Woking was 54, and in 1900 it had advanced to 301. The total of 1,894 as a record of 15 years is not financially encouraging, but the society does not relax its efforts to popularize what it believes to be the most sensible and sanitary means of disposing of the dead. In the past perhaps the question of expense has hindered the reform as much as anything.—London Chronicle.

LOMBARD PIANOS ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD !!

Mrs. Helen M. Baker, 244 Grand Ave., Aurora, Ill., says: "I cannot find words in the English language to express my appreciation to you for having sold me such a beautiful instrument. I really think it is the most beautiful case I ever saw, and the tone is simply grand. I shall be glad to give you any testimonial, as I think the Lombard should take the lead."

Rev. Geo. Deubleday, Pres. Corpus Christi College, Galesburg, Ill., says: "We are using the Lombard in our College work at Corpus Christi, and it is a pleasure to recommend it. It is a beautiful instrument with a deep, sweet, rich tone."

J. W. Parviance, Editor McNairy County Independent, Selmer, Tenn., says: "The instrument (Lombard Piano) fills our most sanguine expectations. It is not only a rare beauty in its outward finish, but the tone is round, full, rich and sweet. Your firm has proven to be prompt and reliable in its dealings with me."

J. Ernest Paxson, Editor Press, Parkersburg, Pa., says: "I must say that the Lombard sent me is a beautiful instrument, and a credit to a standard firm. We are more than satisfied."

R. S. Knapp, President Federal Charter Co., Washington, D. C., says: "We now realize after a careful and comprehensive trial of the Lombard by many musical artists of Washington, that it stands second to none, regardless of price or make. Every one who has tried this instrument is enthusiastic in its praise."

These are samples of hundreds of enthusiastic letters received in every mail.
